SOCIETY

A Country Dance.

With the long series of brilliant dances which have kept the younger set in a mad whirl for the past two or three weeks it would be difficult to select one which surpassed all of the others, but one can say that the dance given by Mr. J. Lewis Renton and Mr. Allan Renton at their beautiful Ewa home last week was one of the loveliest and most enjoyable affairs of the entire season. Every feature of the evening's entertainment had been carefully carried out to the most minute detail.

A special train filled with gay pleasure-seekers left Honolulu at half past seven. The ride out to the plantation was delightful, jests and laughter and the music of a popular quintette passing the time pleasantly. The train stopped at the Ewa crossing from which lights were strung to the entrance of the house and the guests passed along the brightly lighted avenue which was about two hundred yards long. Those who did not come in the train made the trip in automobiles.

The spacious dining room and parlors which were beautifully decorated in pink and green were thrown open for dancing. The young men wore sack suits which took the edge of formality off and all entered in for a good time. The music was inspiring, the floor excellent, and youth and beauty tripped the light fantastic in the most romantic and delightful of settings. Between dances the guests pattered on the lawn or strolled about the lawn, the light-colored gowns of the young ladies gleaming among the trees and foliage.

Some of the young men, less inclined to dancing, used their "off" dances to enjoy a swim in the large tank in the grounds.

Fruit punch was offered the guests throughout the evening, toward the end of which delicious refreshments were served on the lawn.

Dancing was merrily indulged in until half past one when the guests prepared to leave for Honolulu. They were again favored with music during the trip, arriving in town at 2:30 where taxis and automobiles awaited to convey them to their homes.

Those invited to be present were: Miss Marion Austin, Mrs. Norma Adams, Miss Violet Atherton, Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Vivian Buckland, Miss May Biven, Miss Mildred Chanin, Miss Marion Chapin, Miss Madeline Chapin, Miss Margaret Center, Miss Grace Carter, Miss Alice Cooke, Miss Beatrice Castle, Miss Phoebe Carter, Miss Elizabeth Carter, Miss Daphne Damon, Miss Beatrice Dredge, Mrs. Alfred Eames, Miss Elizabeth Eames, Miss Marjorie Preeth, Mrs. Jack Guard, Miss Dorothy Guild, Miss Edith Gibb, Miss Mary Ragan Gary, Miss Cordelia Gilman, Miss Marjorie Gilman, Mrs. Frank Hoogs, Mrs. Cyril Hoogs, Miss Fannie Hoogs, Miss Alice Hoogs, Miss Muriel Hind, Miss Rose Herbert, Miss Bernice Halstead, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Hilma von Holt, Miss Harriet Hatch, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Bertha Koppe, Miss Esther Koppe, Miss Laura Low, Miss Harriet Lucas, Miss Mary Lucas, Mrs. Reynolds McGrew, Miss Ruth McChesney, Miss Helen McLean, Miss Ramona Marks, Miss Thelma Marphv, Miss Ruth Richards, Miss Madeline Ross, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Miss Nora Swanzy, Miss Rosamund wanzly, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Helen Sualding, Miss Nora Sturgeon, Miss Blanche Soper, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Eloise Wickman, Miss Peth Woods, Miss Helen Wilder, Mrs. Jack Young, Miss Genevieve Young, Mrs. Herbert Dowsett, Miss Margaret Thurston, Miss Beauling, Miss Bredhoff, Miss Bessie Hopper, Miss Alice Hopper, Miss Marjorie Peterson, Mr. Alexander Anderson, Mr. George Ah-burn, Mr. Kenneth Ables, Dr. Brawley, Mr. Watson Ballentyne, Mr. Gustave Ballentyne, Mr. C. Exhibition of Miniatures.

Rosa Hooper Lyon, well known in Honolulu for her splendid miniature paintings, has returned to this city after an absence of four years, and in order to meet Honoluluans with whom she is not at present acquainted, she will hold a reception and exhibition in the mauka pavilion of the Young hotel tomorrow afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock.

In the receiving line with Mrs. Lyon will be Mrs. Francis Gay, Mrs. Ernest Ross and Mrs. McIntosh.

During her last visit to Honolulu this charming artist painted a number of miniatures of local people and it is probable that she will add to her efforts during her present sojourn here.

The father of Mrs. Lyon was Maj. William B. Hooper of San Francisco, who was well known in the islands many years ago.

A very pretty wedding took place last Wednesday evening when Miss Elizabeth T. M. Ting became the bride of Mr. Ernest E. Goo at the home of the groom's parents, 310 School street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Doremus Scudder.

The Goo home was elaborately decorated for the occasion and about 700 guests were present. Music was furnished during the evening by two orchestras, one composed of Chinese musicians and the other of Hawaiian singers and players.

Miss Violet A. Ting acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Fred Goo supported his brother as best man. A great many beautiful gifts were received by the popular couple, as well as several congratulatory cablegrams, among which was one from a brother of the bridegroom in Washington, Mr. Clement R. Goo On, of the Department of the Interior.

After a short honeymoon spent at the Haleiwa Hotel the young couple will make their home in Honolulu.

Among those present at the wedding were:

Mrs. Ting Leng, Miss Mabel E. Boshier, Dr. Doremus Scudder, Rev. Lo, Miss Rose Faust, Miss J. L. Winnie, The Young People's League, The Chinese Society, The Five Hundred, Mrs. Chas. Baker, Mr. C. F. The "Daughters of Hawaii" held a very important and interesting meeting yesterday morning in the Library of Hawaii when the ways and means for repairing and preserving "Hanaikaralama," Queen Emma's house in Nuuanu Valley, were discussed. They decided to get possession of the property, but before doing this it will be necessary for the association to secure a charter. However, the proposed improvements will be started at once. In order to raise funds with which to carry out this work the "Daughters of Hawaii" have decided to hold a delicatessen sale on the first day of August. The members of the club are most enthusiastic over the idea and expect the affair to be a great success. They urge that all those interested in the work donate something towards this sale.

Miss Doris Noble was hostess at a delightful luncheon on last Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Dorothy Peterson. At the prettily decorated table, covers were laid for Miss Bernice Halstead, Miss Jones, Miss Jannatt Sharp, Miss Beth Woods, Miss Ramona Marks, Miss Margaret Thurston, Miss Ramona Morgan, Miss Catherine Ashley, Miss Avis Yates, Miss Dorothy Peterson and Miss Noble.

After luncheon, the remainder of the afternoon was spent playing the game of "Newmarket." Miss Jones and Miss Sharp being the prize-winners.

The pleasant visit enjoyed by Miss Claudia Steinman, who recently spent a month in the islands, is mentioned in the following clipping from the San Francisco Examiner:

"Miss Claudia Steinman, a very attractive young girl of the younger set from here, is having a glorious time in Honolulu. Miss Steinman sailed from here on June 9 for a four-weeks' visit there and for a tour of the Hawaiian Islands before her return home. She is with a party of San Francisco friends."

The cruisers South Dakota and West Virginia, whose arrival is eagerly anticipated by local social circles, are expected in port in a very few days, as they were due to leave San Francisco Honolulu bound this week.

Army and navy circles have not for many a long day been so quiet socially as during the past two weeks. The popular leaders have been taking a real rest preparatory perhaps to the appearance of the cruisers upon the social horizon.

Mrs. Herschel Tupes was hostess at a delightful little tea last Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Daly of Boston, who is visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Lieutenant and Mrs. Joseph O. Daly of Schofield Barracks. Miss Daly also spent some time in Hawaii last year, when she was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Lantry. They were both very popular in local circles and won a great many friends among the island army folk.

Hawaiians visiting in San Francisco were entertained a week or so ago by moving pictures of the Hawaiian ground-breaking exercises taken a few days before. The pictures were shown in the beautiful palm garden of the Hotel Bellevue. Afterwards an address was made by A. P. Taylor, resident commissioner of Hawaii.

Mr. Sidney Carr entertained at dinner at the Country Club last Wednesday evening for a number of his friends. Flowers and ferns furnished attractive decorations for the table, at which covers were placed for 12. After dinner the automatic piano provided music for a number of jolly dances.

Judge and Mrs. Arthur Wilder entertained at an enjoyable dance last evening at the Country Club. The little Nuuanu Club house is one of the coolest spots in the city during these warm days and is being made the scene of any number of delightful affairs.

Professor and Mrs. Perley L. Horne departed for the coast on the Wilhelmina last Wednesday. It was a very
